

HOMES THAT GLORIFY GOD

TITUS 2:4-5

I. Homes that glorify God have women who are trained to love (Titus 2:4).

- How can older women do a better job of teaching young wives to love?
- How can young wives better seek and find training to love?

II. Homes that glorify God have women who exhibit godly character (Titus 2:5).

- How can women learn to be sensible, pure and good?
- What honor should come to effective 'keepers of the home?'

III. In homes that glorify God, wives respect their husbands (Titus 2:5).

- What happens in homes where wives do not respect their husbands?
- Who is blessed when wives learn to respect their husbands?

IV. In homes that glorify God, husbands are worthy of respect (Titus 2:5).

- What problems come when men want to be respected for ungodly behavior?
- What blessings come to the home when men exhibit godly behavior?

V. God's design for homes keeps His word from being blasphemed (Titus 2:5).

- How can we do a better job of developing godly 'keepers of the home?'
- How do godly homes protect our culture from blaspheming God?

Call to Action: To train and motivate godly keepers of the home.

- How well are our husbands living a life that can be respected?
- How well are our wives respecting their husbands?
- What are we doing to help train younger women to be godly keepers of the home?
- What are we doing to motivate younger women to be godly keepers of the home?

-How can we help?
