

WHERE CAN I FLEE FROM GOD'S PRESENCE?

PSALM 139:7-12

I. God loves us enough to save us from sin's separation (Genesis 3:22-24).

- What would have happened if they had eaten from the tree of life?
- When they were separated by sin, who looked for them? (Genesis 3:9)

II. God can be with us
wherever we are
(Psalm 139:7-12).

- How well does God know you? (v.1-6)
- Where can you flee from His presence?

II. God can be with us
wherever we are
(Psalm 139:7-12).

- How well does God know you? (v.1-6)
- Where can you flee from His presence?
- When you get to where you can't see God, can He still see you?

III. We can make ourselves feel alone even when we are not (I Kings 19:10, 14).

- What attitudes and perceptions make us think we are alone?
- What actions should we take when we feel alone? (I Kings 19:15-18)

IV. When we feel separated from God, we can know that we aren't (1 John 3:19f).

- How can we set our hearts at rest when our hearts are condemning us?
- How well are we setting our hearts at rest?

V. God promised to be with us always (Matthew 28:18-20).

- Where can we flee from the presence of almighty God who promised to be with us?
- What should we be doing if we want to enjoy His presence?

Call to Action: To purposely live each day in the presence of God.

- What made Adam and Eve think they could hide from God?
- What makes us think that we are far away from God?
- What helps us appreciate the presence of God?
- How should we be living if we are enjoying the presence of God?
- What do you need to be doing?

-How can we help?
