TEACH US TO NUMBER OUR DAYS

PSALM 90:12
I. Moses was trained 120 years to teach us how to number our days (Psalm 90:1-6).

• What lessons do we need to learn from the seasons of Moses’ life?

• How can our understanding of Moses’ days help us better number ours?
II. To number our days we need proper perspective (v.7-11).

• What spiritual perspective will help us to better number our days?

• How are you motivated by the temporary nature of this life?
III. We need to live like our days are numbered (Psalm 90:12).

• How does life get more intense when we realize that our days are numbered?

• How would you love and forgive and spend your time if your days were numbered?

• How are you going to spend your time with your numbered days (Psalm 139:16)?
IV. We need to live with our days numbered 1st, 2nd and 3rd (Psalm 90:12).

• What happens to our lives when we put careers ahead of relationships?

• Who has been getting the first of your time and your attention?

• Who is going to get the first and the second of your time and attention?
V. When we properly number our days, we gain wisdom (Psalm 90:12).

- How does proper time allocation help your heart gain wisdom?

- Why is it so important for our hearts to gain wisdom? (Colossians 3:1-4)
Call to Action: To properly invest our time in God, then in family, then in others.

- What have you learned from the seasons of your life?
- How is your perspective of God shaping your daily schedule?
- What would you do today if you knew your days were numbered?
- What will be first in your daily schedule?

-How can we help?
