

HONORING THE MIGHTY WHO HAVE FALLEN

II SAMUEL 3

I. A dishonored man of honor chose to honor the king (II Samuel 3:6-21).

- Why is it not in your best interest to dishonor others?
- In whose company do honorable people feel most comfortable?
- How much effort are honorable men willing to give to live honorably?

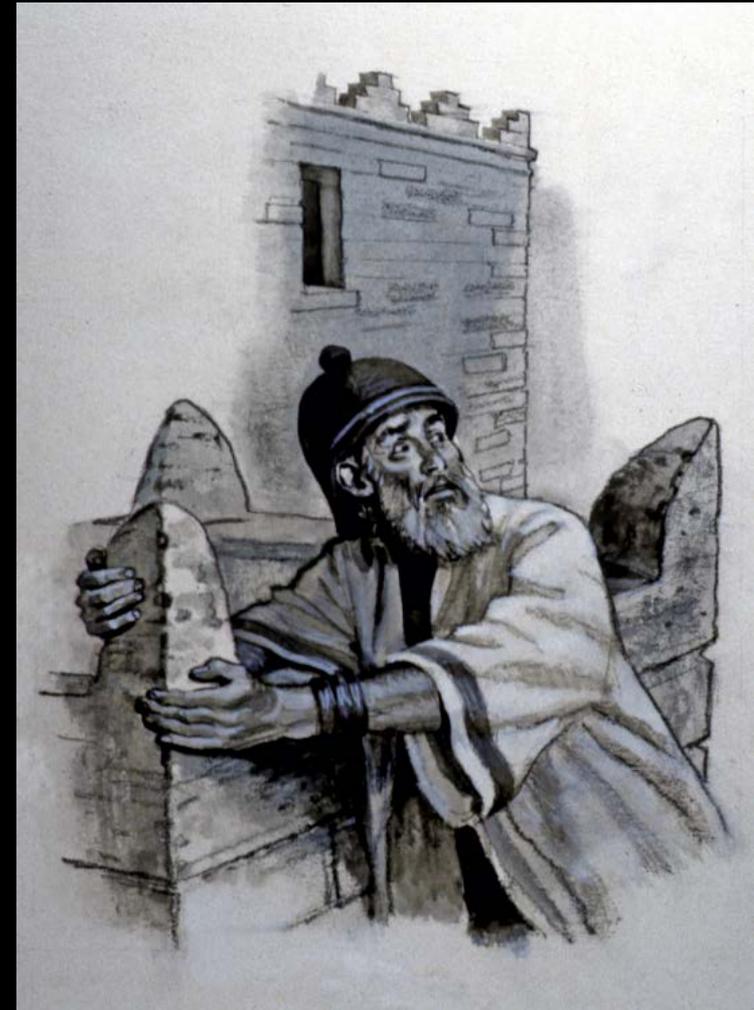

II. A dishonorable man chose to dishonor his uncle, the king (v.22-27).

- What motivates dishonorable people to act dishonorably?
- When we act dishonorably, who is affected?

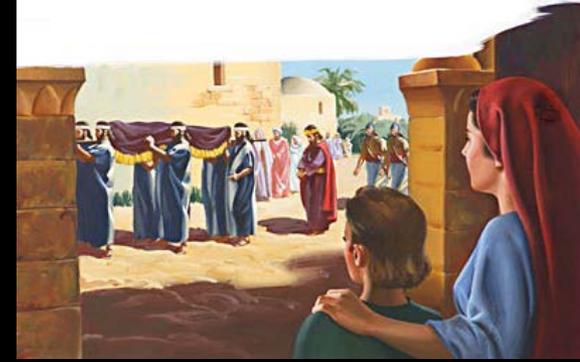

III. An honorable king exposes a dishonorable nephew (v.28-30).

- When is the right time to expose dishonorable behavior?
- Why is it honorable to expose and rebuke dishonor?

I Kings 2:28-35

IV. An honorable king honors an honorable man (II Samuel 3:31-38).

- How are observers affected when the honorable are honored?
- Why is it so important for us to be genuine when honoring others?

V. We would do well to 'value the weight' of each person (I Peter 2:17).

- What can we do to properly value the fallen?

- What can we do to properly value the living?

Call to Action: To truly honor others with our actions and words.

- Why honor others when we have been dishonored?
- Why is it easy to spot the dishonorable?
- Why expose and rebuke the dishonorable?
- What is accomplished when we honor the honorable?
- Why does God call us to honor all men?
- How well are we practicing honor?

-How can we help?
