

WHEN YOU DON'T KNOW WHAT TO DO

II CHRONICLES 20:1-30

I. There are vast armies that are ready to attack the people of God (v.1-2).

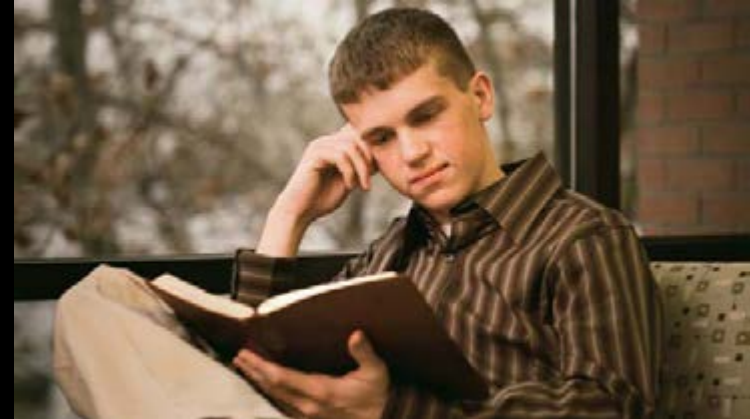

- Even when you are serving God, why will enemies gather against you?
- What vast armies are arrayed against the people of God today?

II. When they didn't know what to do, they sought God in prayer
(II Chronicles 20:3-12).

- Why is seeking God in prayer always the best first option?
- How is seeking God a superior choice to getting ready to defend yourself?

III. God tells His people to listen to Him and to not be afraid (v.13-17).

- How does listening to God help you through times when you are strongly opposed?
- What is accomplished by fear and discouragement?
- What happens to us when we realize that the battle is the Lord's?

IV. When they didn't know what to do, they chose to praise God
(II Chronicles 20:18-21).

- What is the logic that chooses to praise God before the battle?
- What is the logic that has the chorus leading the soldiers to the battle?

V. The sovereign, loving God protected His people (II Chronicles 20:22-30).

- How easily can God eliminate the source of our fears?
- How does our attitude change when we see that our enemies don't really get along?

Call to Action: When troubles threaten, purposely praise God.

- What do you do when our problems are too strong for you?
- How strongly are you convinced that God can protect you better than you can?
- How strongly do you believe God's promises?
- Where can you find the faith to praise God before the battle?
- Are you convinced that God will protect you?

-How can we help?
