

STANDING IN AWE OF THE GOD OF ISRAEL

ISAIAH 29:13-24

I. When people only honor God outwardly, they need to be awed (Isaiah 29:13-14).

- What is incomplete about honoring God only with our lips?
- When have you allowed God to 'astound you with wonder upon wonder?'

II. Those who think they can sin secretly are rejecting the creator (Isaiah 29:15-16).

- What do our attempts to hide our sins say about our faith in God?
- Why do we need to understand that we are clay?
- How will an awe of God help us better honor our potter?

III. A time would come for Israel when the humble would rejoice (v.17-21).

- How did the physical blessings for Israel compare with our blessings?
- What promises in this passage can we see fulfilled in Christ?

(Mark 7:37, Matthew 11:5; Luke 7:22)

IV. The redeemed will stand in awe of the God of Israel (Isaiah 29:22-23).

- How had God already redeemed Abraham and his descendants?
- How does seeing our children motivate us to keep His name holy?
- When do you remember standing in absolute awe of God?

V. When we are awed by God, we will receive instruction (v.24).

- What does our unwillingness to study
God's word say about our lack of awe?
- How can awe of God save us from being complainers?

Call to Action: To immerse ourselves in Jesus so that we can be awed.

- How can we grow past merely outward devotion?
- How will awe save us from our secret sins?
- Do we humbly rejoice in Jesus?
- Now that you are redeemed, how completely are you awed by God?
- What has been holding you back from submitting to God's word?

-How can we help?
