

"HOLY
TO THE LORD"

ZECHARIAH
14:4-21

I. The primary context of these promises involves the church (Zechariah 9:9).

- What can we learn from these prophecies (9:9; 11:12-13; 12:10; 13:6, 7)?
- How do these specific prophecies affect your faith?

II. From the Mt. of Olives He will make a way for His people (Zechariah 14:4-5).

- How did the One who stood on the Mt. of Olives make a way for His people?
- How does history record the fulfillment of Matthew 24:15-16?

(Josephus Wars 4:6:1; Eusebius 3:5:3).

III. Living waters will flow from Jerusalem (Zechariah 14:8).

- How do Ezekiel 47:1-12 and John 7:37-38 help us understand this passage?
- How are we being the water of life in our world? (Zechariah 8:23)

IV. The LORD will reign over the earth and Jerusalem will be secure (Zechariah 14:9-11).

- Do these promises this apply better to physical or to spiritual Jerusalem?
- How should our behavior be motivated and affected by these promises?

V. Common articles will be inscribed with, "Holy to the LORD" (Zechariah 14:20-21).

- How does I Corinthians 10:31 help us understand and apply this promise?
- How is this significant for priests?

(Exodus 39:30; I Peter 2:5)

- How must our lives change when we realize that we are 'Holy unto the LORD?'

Call to action: To purposely live as vessels of God's holiness and life.

- How will it help our lives to know Zechariah's prophecies about Jesus?
- How convinced are you that God always provides for His people?
- How are you being the water of life today?
- How fully convinced are you about God's reign?
- What changes do we need to make in our lives because of His mark, "Holy Unto The LORD?"

-How can we help?
